How to get there.

From the downtown terminal take Route 4 leaving at 15 minutes after the hour. Ride all the way to the Broadmoor Hotel.

When you get off the bus, walk in the direction the bus is facing to the first cross walk on your left. Walk across the street past The Golden Bee Restaurant to 1st Street. Turn left. Walk past the front of the Golden Bee Restaurant, and turn right. Cross the street to the parking lot. You will see the ticket booth.

Choose between 2 unforgettable five zip line tours or take both for twice the adventure. Each course is three hours.

The Woods Course takes you over

Pines,

Creeks,

Valleys,

and a Natural Granite Arch as you fly through and above the trees.

The Fins Course will take you higher and faster over

Steep drops,
Jagged cliffs and a Breath taking view of Seven Falls Canyon.

This course also features

Towering suspension bridges leading up to the launch platform with a 180 foot rappel to the canyon floor at the end.

or

Take the 4 hour adventure that includes both courses and 8 zip lines with the rappel to Seven Falls.

You will come to know,

It's the only way to fly, The Broadmoor Soaring Adventure.

Afterward, celebrate a nice lunch or dinner at Restaurant 1858 at Seven Falls. 1858 is the year gold was discovered in Colorado.

The zip lines range is distance from 250 to 1800 feet
and includes an entrance into Seven Falls.

Weight restriction is between 90 and 250 lbs.

The Seven Falls Free Shuttle will take you back to where you got on the bus to the Broadmoor Soaring Adventure.

To get back on Route 4, walk back to where you got off the bus at the Broadmoor Hotel.
