There are 224 steps to the banks of the streams that feeds the seven falls where you can also go hiking. If you choose to hike, be sure to come back down the stairs 30 minutes before sunset.

There are 185 steps to the Eagles Nest where you can see all the seven waterfalls at one time.

If walking up stairs is too difficult, there is an elevator that takes you up the 14 stories. When you get off, you will see the most inspiring scenery.
